THE ELIJAH MESSAGE

What can we see from this story about how the prophetic office can work?

The Prophetic Office at Work

1 Kings 18:19–39

1. The Prophet Confronts Spiritual Compromise

"How long will you falter between two opinions?"—1 Kings 18:21, NKJV

Elijah did not simply predict future events; he confronted the spiritual condition of God's people. Israel was attempting to combine the worship of the Lord with the worship of Baal. The prophetic office calls people out of compromise and back to wholehearted loyalty to God.

Key truth: Prophets do not merely reveal what will happen; they expose what is happening spiritually.

2. The Prophet Restores Forgotten Truth

"Then Elijah said to all the people, 'Come near to me.' … And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was broken down."—1 Kings 18:30, NKJV

Before the fire fell, Elijah repaired the Lord's altar. The twelve stones reminded Israel of its covenant identity as God's people. The prophetic ministry does not invent new truth; it restores biblical truth that has been neglected, forgotten, or abandoned.

Key truth: The prophetic office calls God's people back to His Word, His covenant, and true worship.

3. The Prophet Depends Upon God's Word and Power

"Let it be known this day that You are God in Israel and I am Your servant, and that I have done all these things at Your word."—1 Kings 18:36, NKJV

Elijah did not act according to personal ambition. He acted at God's command. He even poured water over the sacrifice so that no one could claim that the fire was produced through human manipulation.

Key truth: A genuine prophet does not seek personal attention or manufacture results; the prophet obeys God's Word and depends upon God's power.

4. The Prophet Seeks Restoration, Not Personal Recognition

"Hear me, O LORD, hear me, that this people may know that You are the LORD God, and that You have turned their hearts back to You again."—1 Kings 18:37, NKJV

Elijah's ultimate goal was not to defeat the prophets of Baal in a public contest. His purpose was to turn Israel's heart back to God. When the fire fell, the people confessed:

"The LORD, He is God! The LORD, He is God!"—1 Kings 18:39, NKJV

Key truth: The true purpose of prophecy is not sensationalism, self-promotion, or merely predicting events—it is to restore people to a saving relationship with God.

Summary

The prophetic office:

1. Confronts compromise
2. Restores forgotten truth
3. Depends upon God's Word and power
4. Turns hearts back to God

Just prior to Christ's second coming, God commands His church to proclaim the Elijah message again, and for people to turn away from their "idols" and be ready to stand in the great day of the Lord. God still communicates with His people through channels that He has selected. His Word and the gift of prophecy provide admonition, warning, counsel, and encouragement.

Read Malachi 4:5, 6. How does the Elijah message impact the homes of those who follow God?

1. It Restores Relationships Within the Family

"And he will turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers."—Malachi 4:6, NKJV

The Elijah message brings reconciliation into the home. It challenges parents to return to their spiritual responsibilities and children to respond with love and respect. It heals estrangement, rebuilds communication, and restores affection between generations.

2. It Restores the Family's Relationship With God

“Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD.”—Malachi 4:5, NKJV

Just as Elijah called Israel away from Baal and back to the true God, the end-time Elijah message calls families away from false worship, compromise, and worldly distractions. It rebuilds the family altar and prepares the entire household for the coming of the Lord.

In summary: The Elijah message turns hearts toward one another and turns the entire home back toward God.

“A revival of true godliness among us is the greatest and most urgent of all our needs. To seek this should be our first work. There must be earnest effort to obtain the blessing of the Lord, not because God is not willing to bestow His blessing upon us, but because we are unprepared to receive it.” —Ellen G. White, Selected Messages, book 1, p. 121.
